November 2024, in Wandoga Village, Intan Jaya Regency, Papua Tengah Province, Soldiers turned a routine mission into a heartwarming display of unity through their Social Communication (Komsos) program.

Led by First Lieutenant Wanianto of the Holomama Post, the Task Forces conducted their community engagement activities while ensuring security in the area. With a focus on fostering trust and strengthening bonds, the initiative provided the perfect platform to support local residents and uplift their spirits.

This sentiment resonated deeply with the children, including Rio Tabuni, who voiced his gratitude with heartfelt words: "Thank you, Commander 509. God bless you."
